

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, since 2001, municipalities in our area sought a more efficient and effective 911 dispatch center which Brown County took leadership and ownership of; and

WHEREAS, approximately 361,000 calls were received in the Brown County Public Safety Communications Center in 2017 with over 217,000 calls dispatched for police, fire and/or rescue response; and

WHEREAS, each day, 24 hours per day, the citizens of Brown County and nationwide can be assured someone will be there when they need assistance; and

WHEREAS, the safety of our police officers and firefighters is dependent upon the quality and accuracy of information obtained from citizens who call the Brown County Public Safety Communications Center; and

WHEREAS, telecommunicators are the clear and calm guidance and support for our husbands, wives, children, friends and family in our most frantic moments; and

WHEREAS, Brown County telecommunicators devote their lives to helping others and play a critical, behind the scenes role in every emergency within their community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I Troy J. Streckenbach, Brown County Executive, do hereby recognize the week of April 14th—20th, 2019 as NATIONAL PUBLIC SAFETY TELECOMMUNICATORS WEEK and call upon all citizens to join in and support Telecommunicators, the driving force behind emergency rescue services.

NATIONAL PUBLIC SAFETY TELECOMMUNICATORS WEEK

Dated this 17th day of April, 2019.

Troy Streckenbach
Brown County Executive